RESPONSE TO INTERVIEW SUMMARY

The applicants' representatives graciously thank the Examiner for the 03/01/05 interview. The pending rejections were discussed, but no formal agreements were reached on allowance of the claims.

The applicants' representatives respectfully argued that none of the references teach or suggest dynamically (e.g., real time) generating a user web document in a second spoken language using desired use variables from a linked prearranged document or form web document in a first spoken language. The applicants' representatives also respectfully asserted that the 35 U.S.C. 103 rejection was improper because the cited references provided no motivation to combine the references.

The Examiner agreed to consider the claim amendments and the arguments made by the applicants' representatives."

Please apply any charges or credits to Deposit Account No. 06-1050.

Respectfully submitted,
